

Akili and the Magical Telescope

Age
Umri
3+

Akili was feeling lonely, and wondering what to do, when a long, round thing rolled onto her shoe.

“Who are you?” she asked
with great surprise.

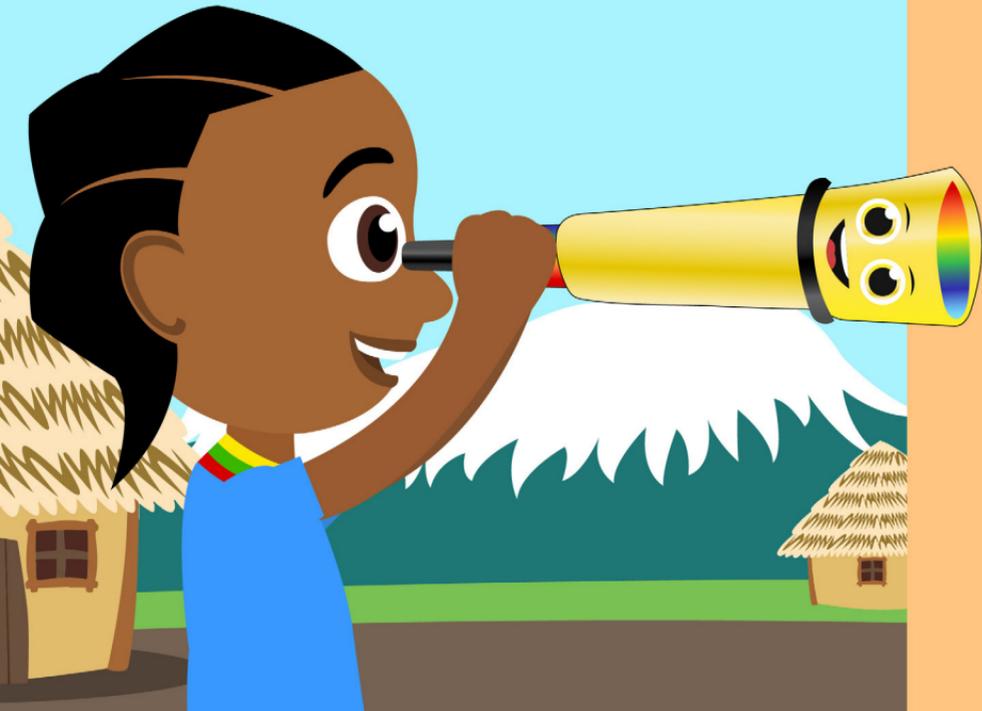

“I’m Telescope,
I can see far and wide.”

“If you put me up to your eye
and look right through,
you’ll see children
around the world
who dream just like you.”

Akili picked up the telescope
and looked right through.

She saw someone
waving, and wondered...

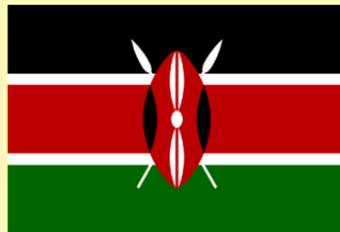

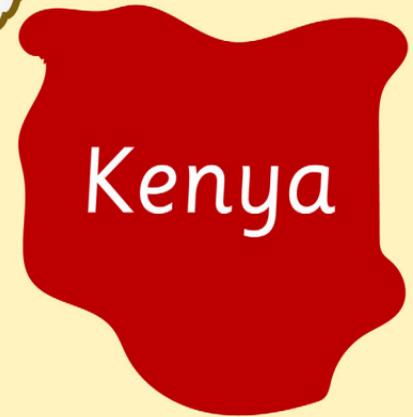

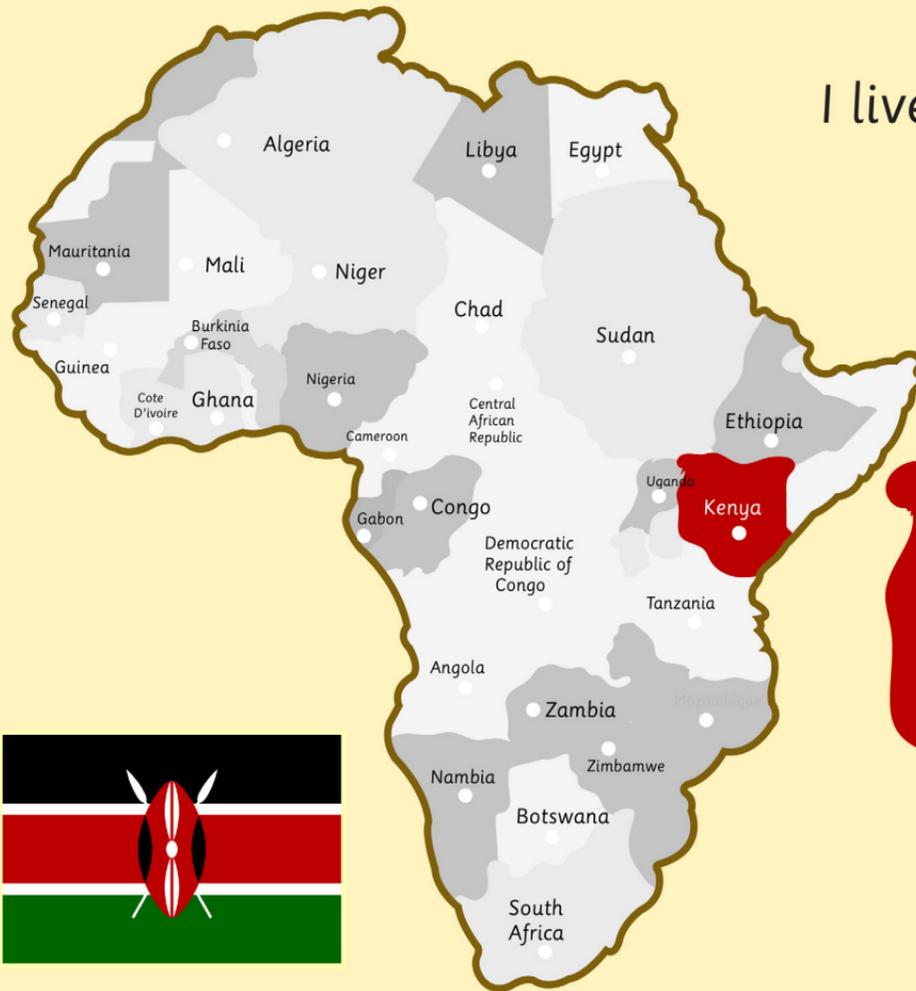

Who are you?

My name is Amani.

I live in Kenya.

I dream about exploring the sea and discovering new animals that no-one has ever seen!

What an adventurous friend!

Akili picked up the telescope
and looked right through.

She saw someone
waving, and wondered...

Who are you?

My name is Henry.

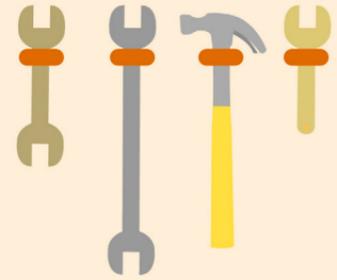

I live in Ghana.

I dream about inventing things,
like a robot that can dance and sing!

What a creative friend!

Akili picked up the telescope and looked right through.

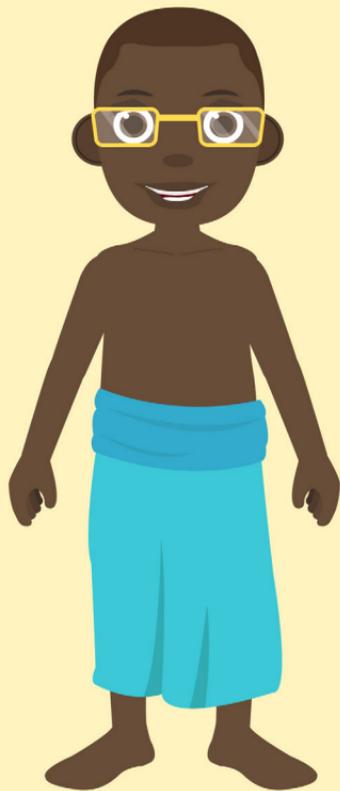

She saw someone waving, and wondered...

Who are you?

My name is Ali.

I live in Tanzania.

I dream about building a house out of books,
so I'll never run out of things to read!

What a clever friend!

Akili began to feel happy again.

My name is Akili.
I have sooo many friends!
I dream of learning in Lala Land with all of them!

Akili picked up the telescope again
and looked right through.

She saw someone special...

It was YOU!

My name is _____.

I live in _____.

I dream about _____.

Akili was so happy to have friends like Amani, Henry, Ali and all of YOU!

With dreams like these, there is nothing we cannot do!

THE END

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, distributed, or transmitted in any form or by any means, including photocopying, recording, or other electronic or mechanical methods, without the prior written permission of UBONGO INTERNATIONAL, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical reviews and certain other noncommercial uses permitted by copyright law.

