Knock knock knock!
Who's at the door?
Happy Hippo and Little Lion have come to play!

“Hello Bush Baby! Let’s have some fun!”
Bush Baby has broken his toe,
and cannot play today!

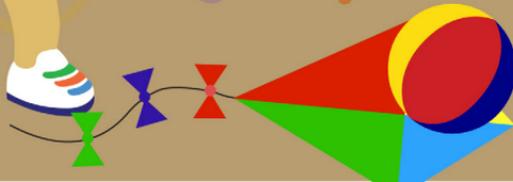

Poor Bush Baby, what a shame!

Bush Baby must stay inside,
while we play our game.

Wait a second!
We cannot just leave
Bush Baby here by himself.

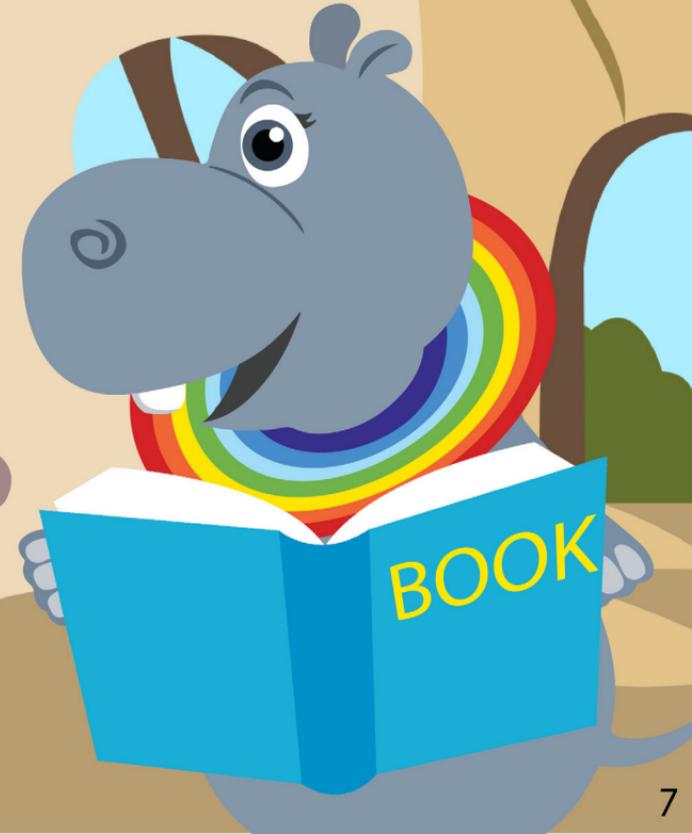

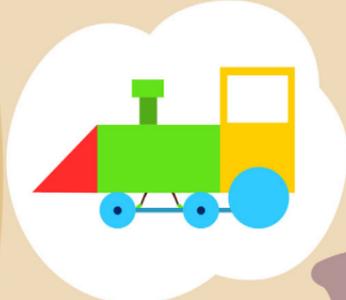

Poor Bush Baby
will be all alone.

How can we make
Bush Baby feel better?

Should we make him a card?
Should we give him some juice?

Should we draw him a train?
Or read him a story?

We could paint him a star or even a rainbow!
We know he would love that!

Bush Baby! Bush Baby! What can we do, to show you how much we care about you?

Bush Baby looks up at his two friends and sees how they are trying to make him happy.

Look, Bush Baby is happy now!
He is smiling.

“Woooo wo wo wo wo wo.”
What is that he said?

He likes the card!
He likes the juice!
He likes hearing stories!
And he likes all our paintings!

He loves his friends. His friends who care.
Good friends like you and me.
Good friends who will be there.

We're here for you, Bush Baby!
